STATE BONDS

OF THE

SEVERAL BANKS

IN WHICH

The State's Moneys are Deposited.

Made in Obedience to an Order of the House of Delegates, passed Feb. 9th, 1876.

ANNAPOLIS:
JOHN F. WILEY, STATE PRINTER.
1876.

STATE BOND

OF THE

Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank

OF BALTIMORE.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That we, the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank of Baltimore, J. Hanson Thomas, D. J. Foley, Otho H. Williams, T. Robert Jenkins and Jas. Sloan, Jr., are held and firmly bound unto the State of Maryland in the full and just sum of five hundred thousand dollars lawful money, to which payment well and truly to be made and done we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals and dated this twenty-fifth day of February, eighteen hundred and seventy-four.

WHEREAS, By the Constitution of the State of Maryland provision is made that the Treasurer shall receive the monies of State, and until otherwis provided by law, deposit them as soon as received to the credit of the State of Maryland in such bank or banks as he may, from time to time, with the approval of the Governor, select, the said bank or banks giving security satisfactory to the Governor for the safe-keeping and forthcoming, when required, of said deposits.

And whereas the Treasurer of the said State, Barnes Compton, has selected, with the approval of W. Pinkney Whyte, the Governor thereof, the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank of Baltimore as one of such banks, in which he will deposit the monies of the State to the credit of State, and we, the above named obligors, are willing, at the instance of the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank of Baltimore, to become the securities thereof, as above required.

Now the condition of the above obligation is such, that if the said Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank of Baltimore do and shall, at all times, safely keep and have forthcoming, when required, all said deposits of the State upon checks drawn by the Treasurer, and countersigned by the Comptroller, and shall, in all respects, duly account for such deposits, according to the law, then this obligation shall be void, otherwise to remain in full force.
